Two Red Notice Suspects and a Female Suspect Repatriated to Sri Lanka

Two organized crime suspects who were subject to International Red Notices, along with a female suspect residing overseas, have been brought back to Sri Lanka.

The two organized criminals and the female suspect who is wanted in connection with the embezzlement of government funds were repatriated by air and taken into custody by a team of officers from the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) upon arrival at Bandaranaike International Airport, Katunayake, this morning (16.01.2026).

The male suspects, aged 30 and 52, are residents of the Kandana and Uragasmanhandiya areas respectively. The female suspect, aged 56, is a resident of Mount Lavinia.

- The suspect from the Kandana area is wanted in connection with an attempted murder and has been identified as being involved in several criminal activities, including directing shootings and murders that occurred in the Kandana area on 03.07.2025, while he was abroad. He has been handed over to the Kelaniya Divisional Officer for further investigations.
- The suspect from the Uragasmanhandiya area is wanted in connection with multiple organized criminal activities, including firearm-related murders committed in the Uragasmanhandiya area. He has been handed over to the Elpitiya Divisional Officer for further investigations.
- The female suspect, a resident of Mount Lavinia, is a convicted offender who was sentenced to imprisonment and a fine by the Colombo High Court following an investigation conducted by the CID in 2014, in relation to the misappropriation of government funds while employed at a foreign embassy. She has been handed over to the Criminal Investigation Department for further proceedings.

A video clip and several photographs relating to this incident are attached.
